

RESOLUTION

(Adopted by the 1975 convention delegates)

PTA AWARENESS

WHEREAS, The individual and combined efforts of PTA workers at local, council, state and national levels constitutes a major contribution to the well-being of children and schools; and

WHEREAS, The public-at-large (as well as some PTA members, themselves) are often unaware of the many contributions accomplished by the combined body of concerned parents which make up PTA, therefore be it

Resolved, That all PTA members be encouraged to promote the PTA image before the public, seeking deserved publicity to make known the many contributions of PTA to the well-being of children and community.
