

SCHOOL ADVISORY COMMITTEES

WHEREAS, Policies at the National and State levels increasingly require school districts to establish citizen and/or parent advisory groups for districts, schools and certain curriculums and programs; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That local PTAs be encouraged to assume a leadership role in local school districts; by communicating and cooperating effectively with other PTAs, administrators, teachers and local school boards and by participating effectively in advisory groups and district activities.

1975

Retire 1986 - Now mandated by State Law