

POSITION STATEMENT

(1994)

SCHOOL FINANCE

The Colorado PTA supports the establishment of a permanent and adequate method of funding public education that includes provisions for equitable educational opportunities for all students;

The Colorado PTA encourages school districts to develop and implement new approaches to deliver education services;

The Colorado PTA supports state equalization of capital reserve funds to assist districts in building and maintaining adequate facilities;

The Colorado PTA supports reduced reliance on property taxes to fund public schools;

The Colorado PTA will continue its efforts to educate Coloradans on public school needs and public school finance issues.