

RESOLUTION

(Adopted by the 1981 convention delegates)

Dangerous Spring Game "Head Rush"

- WHEREAS, The safety of our children is endangered by the hazards from the game called Head Rush, and
- WHEREAS, The health hazards encountered by children playing the game called "Head Rush" is lack of oxygen supply or in extreme - death, and
- WHEREAS, The Jefferson County Council PTSA Executive Board is concerned over the dangers and safety of children and youth; therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That the State PTA urge its councils and local units to alert and educate parents, teachers, and the Community to the danger of the game Head Rush; and be it further
- RESOLVED, That this resolution be forwarded to the Health and Welfare Commission for necessary action; and be it further
- RESOLVED, That an article of awareness be placed in the State Bulletin; and be it further
- RESOLVED, That an awareness press release be released from convention stating our concern.

Retire 1986 -Action accomplished