

PUBLIC SCHOOL FINANCE

WHEREAS, The attainment of adequate and equitable funding of public education for the school children of Colorado is a fundamental goal of the Colorado Congress of Parents, Teachers and Students; and

WHEREAS, On March 13, 1979, the Colorado method of financing its public schools was declared unconstitutional in District Court; and

WHEREAS, While awaiting an appeal decision in the Colorado Supreme Court, all organized groups involved in education will be developing plans for a fair and equitable method of financing schools; and

WHEREAS, Some of these plans may be introduced as bills in the Colorado General Assembly and one or more may some day become law; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Colorado Congress of Parents, Teachers and Students will work with other groups to assist in developing a plan that offers equal educational opportunity to all children, and will offer the cooperation and assistance of our membership in this endeavor.
