

RESOLUTION

(Adopted by the 1963 Convention delegates)

Reaffirming Our Faith in Schools and School Administrators

WHEREAS: the academic needs of this country's boys and girls are increasing at a pace never before experienced in the history of education in this country; and

WHEREAS: the body of knowledge to be taught to our youth is reputed to double every ten years. and

WHEREAS: school administrators and school faculties have taken steps to meet these needs through improved professional standards, by a more economical organization of school districts and by providing improved school facilities; and

WHEREAS: the principles of our American social, political, and economic system are being maintained and developed as a part of the modern school curriculum; therefore

RESOLVED: that the Colorado Congress of Parents and Teachers reaffirm its faith and confidence in the work, purposes, and value of the educational program of our state public school teachers and administrators.

The committee recommends that this resolution be adopted.
