

Sue Anderson Education Advocate Award

“Advocate vt: to plead in favor of, syn see SUPPORT”
Merriam Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, 10th Ed.

The Colorado PTA Sue Anderson Education Advocate Award is granted to recognize outstanding contributions to public education in Colorado. While educators are often thought of first, this award is intended to recognize anyone who is actively involved in the education of youth in an exceptional way:

Teachers	Principals	Counselors
Substitute Teachers	Assistant Principals	Superintendent
Administrators	Statewide PTA Leader	Community Volunteer

Nominations must come from Colorado PTA members, local units, or councils. The recipient must be a PTA Member and an individual who has contributed to education in Colorado public schools. The contribution must be ongoing or have occurred within the past three years.

Please answer the following questions on a separate page:

1. What leadership role(s) has this individual had in supporting education in Colorado’s public schools?
2. List this individual’s recent activities and contributions that benefit youth.
Please include appropriate dates whenever possible.
3. What is this individual’s most significant contribution?
4. How has this individual made a difference for
 - a. children and youth?
 - b. the greater community?
5. What is it that makes your candidate so outstanding that you submitted this nomination?

Please submit no more than four (4) letters of reference from school/community members to support the nomination. Please use 12 pitch/point standard font minimum with one inch margins on 8½” x 11” white paper. The application (not including letters of reference) is limited to five (5) one-sided pages. Please submit five (5) copies of each document.

Completed application and all supporting materials must be received by March 21, 2020. Please mail to the Colorado PTA office, Attention: Sue Anderson Education Advocate Award.
